MEMORANDUM

TO: AIIA Members
FROM: Todd Roberts, CIC
President
RE: Convention Awards

Enclosed please find nominating forms for the coveted award of Insuror of the Year, Community Impact and Top Underwriter that will be presented at our Annual Convention & Trade Show on May 8-10 at The Lodge at Gulf State Park in Gulf Shores, Alabama.

Insuror of the Year – The purpose of this award is to recognize and promote individual independent agent involvement activities on behalf of the American agency system and the citizens and communities of this state. Some of the established criteria for this award are:

- The individual’s contribution to the agency business for the betterment of fellow agents and the Public.
- The individual’s contributions to the national, state, and/or local associations.
- An individual of high caliber character and general deportment.
- An individual active in the state association.

Community Impact Award – This award goes to either an agent or a company representative that makes a difference in their community by volunteering and giving back. This could be giving back to a nonprofit, their church, school system, etc.

Top Underwriter Award – This award goes to an exceptional underwriter, who excels at their job. This is someone that emulates top qualities of an underwriter – clear communication, willingness to help, time sensitive, always does the best for their agents and company.

Please take a moment to complete the appropriate nominating form(s) and return to Michelle McKee at mmckee@aiia.org by no later than Tuesday, April 8th so staff can plan to have the awards made prior to convention.

Thank you for taking a moment to honor your fellow industry leaders.
